MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

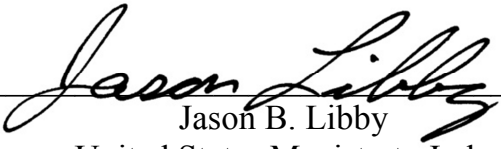

- (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear; and
- (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

The evidence against the defendant meets the probable cause standard. The defendant is currently on bond for a state felony drug trafficking case. The defendant was arrested for absconding from supervision and spent 90 days in custody before being re-released. His state supervising officer has been advised of the instant offense and has informed the United States Pretrial Services officer a motion to revoke will be filed. The defendant has either been unwilling or unable to comply with court ordered supervision and is, therefore, a poor candidate for pretrial release. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshal or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 15th day of October, 2015.

Jason B. Libby
United States Magistrate Judge
